

THE TRIBUNE

DANVILLE, MARCH 19, 1852.

ITEMS.

It is stated that about one thousand hands are employed on the line of the Mayville and Lexington Railroad, between Danville and Lexington. An in New Orleans, called Capt. Tompkins, has achieved the wonderful feat of walking sixty hours, incessantly, without sleep or rest. A large party of emigrants, from Kentucky and other States, arrived at St. Louis on Monday, en route for Minnesota. The statement that Governor Brown, of Florida, had authorized the raising of troops to proceed against the Indians, is contradicted. There was in several U. S. depositories, on the 23rd ult., subject to draft, the sum of $13,696,104. Counterfeit one hundred dollar bills of the Louisville State Bank have been put in circulation at New Orleans. Look out. A bill has passed the Senate of Georgia to prohibit the sale of deadly weapons. The cure of luxury is poverty. We'd rather not be cured. At a recent meeting of the Directors of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, it was resolved to extend and connect this road with the city of Paducah. This determination has caused great rejoicing at Paducah. A train of 95 cars, drawn by two locomotives, ran over the Hudson river railroad, on the 16th, going north. It was more than a mile in length. A 5000 lb. machine, with six Frenchmen to operate it, has arrived at Boston from Paris. The French Government refused the American demand to fly it to France. The French minister, the Soviet Order of Emancipation, lately organized at Washington, is spreading rapidly over the State. In four days, $2,000 copies of the Forest divorce case were sold in New York. A New York lecturer has for his theme the novel subject of "Lectures." A mammoth mirror of the Crystal Palace is on exhibition in New York. Amos Kendall, of Washington, is at present in Louisville. Judge Lancaster, of Spencer county, has refused to grant any licenses who were not ancient spirits. The great variety of provisions in some portions of Georgia, gives fearful apprehensions of a famine among the lower class of the citizens. A man, the President of Mexico, was once a mechanic in Cincinnati. The U. S. Supreme Court having refused a writ to Reid and Clements, the condemned pirates at Richmond Va. they were on Friday sentenced to be hung on the 9th of April next. The American Government is said to be demanding a tax of two hundred and twenty-five dollars from every full grown person emigrating to America. We regret to learn that BEN HARRIS is young dangerously ill at his residence at Bardonia, Ky. Isaac Wiseman, who was shot some two weeks since by James Price, in Irvine, died on last Tuesday morning. Passengers can now go through to New York by the little Miami Railroad and Cincinnati and Cleveland Railroad, without detention at Cleveland. The Albany (New York) Register says: "If any Whig candidate for the Presidency can carry New York, Mr. Fillmore can." The tobacco crop of Missouri, for 1851, is estimated at from 14,000 to 15,000 bbls., against 12,000 to 13,000 the preceding year. The quality is said to be good. At Windsor, Vt., sleighing conditions excellent, and the snow lies between three and four feet deep on a hill. According to Dr. Baird, the national debt of France is $1,200,000,000. The reception of Kosciusko in Philadelphia cost the city only $3,200.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, March 18, SENATE.
Mr. Seward presented and explained the restoration of slavery in the States. A petition was presented for the removal of public lands.
Mr. Seward presented a resolution from the Louisiana Legislature, asking for an appropriation to the State of Louisiana in the Mississippi drainage basin.
Mr. Blair presented a petition from citizens of Montgomery county, Penn., asking for a modification of the Town of 1846.
A bill regarding the coinage of silver was presented. It provides for the coinage of half dollars of the weight of two grains, and quarter, dime and half dimes of respective proportions and coin of a legal tender. Payments exceeding $5 gold or silver, to be cast in bars or ingots of either pure metal or standard fineness, of the weight of 2.3, 5 or 10 ounces, and also provides for the coinage of $3 gold pieces.
The Iowa railroad bill was taken up and after being discussed at some length, was postponed until Wednesday.
Mr. Clark gave notice of his intention to call up his resolutions on intervention tomorrow, to enable Senator Seward to speak thereon.
House.—Went into committee on the homestead exemption bill, the discussion of the presidential question progressing.
WASHINGTON, March 9, SENATE.
Mr. Charles's non-intervention resolutions were taken up.
Mr. Seward made a set speech upon them.
HOUSE.
The bill granting public land and right of way to the construction of a railroad, was taken up and debated, about noon.

The House then went into committee of the whole upon the homestead bill, when a lengthy debate ensued in which the merits of the probable candidates for the Presidency, and their claims for the same were canvassed.
WASHINGTON, March 10, SENATE.
Mr. Birdland spoke in support of the railroad bill, for Ohio, after which a personal explanation occurred between Messrs. Seward and Seward, concerning some remark of the latter yesterday in allusion to the former presiding at the Congressional banquet on Washington's birthday.
Mr. Seward declined to say a word to wound the feelings of Mr. Seward, expressing towards him the warmest feelings of respect and kindness.
After a short executive session, the Senate adjourned.
HOUSE.
Went into committee of the whole on the homestead bill.
Mr. Richardson, of Ill., spoke in defense of Mr. Douglas, in answer to Mr. Breckinridge.
WASHINGTON, March 11, SENATE.
Mr. McKee presented the credentials of Walter Brooke, Senator elect from Mississippi, vice Mr. Foote, resigned.
Mr. Brooke appeared and was qualified.
Mr. Seward's resolutions to pay the expenses of the Kosciusko reception at the capital, provided it did not exceed $5,000, was taken up and debated.
Mr. Mason objected, because it appropriated in any form the contingent fund, when it should be paid for by joint resolution appropriating the amount.
Mr. Bailey said the House had nothing to do with the reception, and that the present form of the resolution was most proper.
HOUSE.
The House voted upon the motion of Mr. Johnson to lay on the table the resolution of Mr. Seward, offered yesterday, to close the debate on the homestead bill at 3 p. m. to-day, which was decided in the affirmative—yeas 121, nays 53.
Mr. Fiebelmeier moved to postpone the bill until Tuesday week, so that the deficiency bill might be taken up—agreed to.
The House then went into committee on the homestead bill.
Mr. Marshall, of California, declared an intention of replying to Breckinridge. He said he should fail to represent his people if he did not reply to the attacks upon Douglas.
WASHINGTON, March 12, SENATE.
Has been engaged on the private calendar. Sixteen bills of no general interest were passed.
The bill making appropriations for the completion of the cemetery near the city of Mexico was passed, and the Senate adjourned till Monday.
HOUSE.
Was engaged in committee of the whole on the Senate's joint resolution authorizing the continuance of the work on two wings of the Capitol.
Mr. Samson, of Ky., advocated the resolution.
Mr. Woodward desired to know when the committee appointed to examine the foundation and walls would report, and what it was likely to be, as the whole question would rest on their report.
Mr. McNair replied that the investigation was going on in the committee, and that they had found the wall in a dreadful condition.
A personal difficulty in which the life was given and blows passed, between Mr. Wilcox of Miss., and Mr. Brown.
The Nashville Railroad Convention.
There are now three prominent projects before the public, proposing to unite Kentucky and Tennessee by railway lines: 1. The Louisville and Nashville; 2. the Danville and Nashville; & 4. the M'innville and Burkesville line. For the first, considerable means have already been provided; the second and third are just now on the anvil and one or both will, we feel confident, be soon hammered into a shape. The Louisville and Nashville line has enough local merit to justify its construction; the other two proposals have perhaps greater merits as national thoroughfares, for they open shorter lines of communication with the North and South and with the East and Southwest. On this point, we refer to an article in this paper, giving the railroad distances between the Southwest and the principal Atlantic ports, from Norfolk to Boston, over the principal lines of railway constructed or proposed.
A Convention is to be held at Nashville on the 12th inst., to promote the connection with Danville. Favorable chances have been granted by the Legislatures of Tennessee and Kentucky; and it needs only to seek in a proper degree of spirit along the line to insure the success of the project. Many county societies, everywhere, will contribute three or four hundred thousand dollars; and yet Marion is not the strongest county on the line. If other counties make an approach of equal liberality in proportion to means and resources—as we perceive no reason to doubt—this line may yet be made about as soon as the line from Nashville to Louisville. In a national point of view it is more important line, for it will give a much shorter and more eligible line of conveyance between the Southwest and the Atlantic seaboard, than any other. With this line, the Mayville roads—the Mayville road running to Lexington and the Mayville road running to Lexington and thence to Atlantic connections—are intimately connected. It is, in fact, but an extension of our great trunk line—the great central railway of Kentucky. We cannot, therefore, feel otherwise than deeply solicitous for the harmony and success of deliberations at Nashville and the early practical prosecution of the work; and nothing but the most imperative obligations at home would prevent our attendance at the convention.
The M'innville and Burkesville line is also one of great public importance, and like the Danville and Nashville line of peculiar importance to the Mayville lines. This line will intersect the Danville and Nashville line, at or below Danville, and intersect the Nashville and Chattanooga line, at or near Chattanooga, running nearly due North and South across the State of Tennessee, and affording a shorter line from the North to Mobile, Savannah and Charleston, than the line via Nashville. We cannot but feel warmly solicitous also for the success of this project, as well as the other, for both are justifiable, being demanded by considerations of public convenience and economy. A convention of the friends of the M'innville line from Tennessee and Kentucky, is to be held at Burkesville, Ky., on the first Monday in April next. We trust its deliberations will prove harmonious and efficient, and result in the adoption of measures leading to the early consummation of the project.—Mayville Eagle.
INTERESTING CEREMONY.—The Frankfort Commonwealth gives the following account of the second initiation of Rev. Calvin Fairbanks, into the "mysteries" of the Kentucky penitentiary:
FAIRBANKS.—We were present on Friday when CALVIN FAIRBANKS was for the second time, regularly initiated into the Kentucky penitentiary. The Keeper, Capt. CRAIG, made an address, reminding the prisoner of the solemn promises of amendment he made to obtain his pardon when in prison before, and of his flagrant violation of them since. He then read to him the rules of the prison, informing him that he should require of him the most scrupulous and exact observance of them in every particular; and that having by his conduct deceived him and other friends who had interfered for his pardon, need now expect no confidence to be reposed in him, nor any indulgence whatever granted to him.
Fairbanks then asked and obtained leave to make an explanation. He pretended to give an account of his proceedings since his pardon, and especially of his connection with the escape of the girl Fanny, for which he was convicted, denying that he had done anything more than carry her off into the interior of Indiana, after she had crossed the river, and professing to have had conscientious scruples about doing that. His statement throughout was contradictory and confused, betraying its falsity in many instances, and showing that he has no truthfulness and but little brains. For example, notwithstanding his professions of sanctity and conscience, he admitted in reply to a question of Capt. Craig, that he had made three visits to a woman he knew to be base, about the time that he carried Fanny off, and that he corresponded with her after he was in jail.
The Governor, several heads of departments, and a number of our citizens were present at the initiating ceremony.
We find the annexed article in the Nashville Banner, of Friday last, by which it will be seen that a proper spirit prevails in Tennessee in reference to the efforts now being made to produce a union of the great works of improvement in course of construction in the two States:
Railroad Delegates from Kentucky.—A number of gentlemen are on their way to visit this city as delegates from the three Railroad Companies in Kentucky, which are preparing to build railroads from Lexington to Covington, from Lexington to Mayville, and from Lexington to Danville. Some of them are expected here to day or to-morrow. Our citizens should prepare to meet them in a proper spirit, and to confer with them freely in relation to our joint and mutual interests. Let us compare opinions, examine the latest plans of operation, and go to work with a spirit of determination truly becoming the States of Kentucky and Tennessee.
A popular idea has been advanced to construct a main trunk railroad from New Orleans and Mobile, via Nashville, Danville, and Guyandotte, to a connection with the Cumberland road, leading into the Eastern cities. This would be nearly an air line from New Orleans to New York. The Mayville road, the Covington road, and the Louisville road, it is believed by those who urge it, should connect with this main trunk. We trust the friends of important railroad improvements will not so divide among themselves as to hazard the accomplishment of works so essentially desirable. There should be a proper spirit of concession and compromise by all. By the way, why is it we have not lately heard from our Louisville friends?
The Louisville Journal, in replying to some remarks of the "Kentucky Rifle" upon the action of the late Whig State Convention, says:
We think that full one-half, if not more, of the primary meetings, expressed a preference for Mr. Fillmore, but, whether it was so or not, the delegates in nominating him exercised an unquestionable right. If they were untrained, they were free to act in the manner according to their own discretion. If they had no right to pass any resolutions except such as they were expressly instructed to pass, then nearly all the resolutions adopted by them were of course unauthorized. The delegates of the several counties went to Frankfort with the understanding that they should appoint delegates to the National Convention, nominate an electoral ticket, and pass such resolutions as they should think demanded by the interests of their party and of the country. There was not among them any difference of opinion, to speak of, as to the policy of nominating Mr. Fillmore for the Presidency. A member of the convention writes to us that he himself was at special pains to ascertain the views of each and all his brother members, and that only three entertained the slightest doubt as to the expediency of Mr. Fillmore's nomination—and these three, certainly, were worthy and intelligent gentlemen, are military men, Colonels, who served gallantly in Mexico, and who might of course be excused for rather overrating the importance of epulettes in a Presidential election.
Now we do not believe with our good friend of the Rifle, that in the event of Mr. Fillmore's being the next Whig candidate for the Presidency, the very excellence of his administration will render the Whigs apathetic. If the Whigs shall manifest an indifference as to his election simply on a count of the goodness of his administration, they will richly deserve to have no better President than Gen. Cass or even the "White Giant."

ANOTHER ROW IN CONGRESS.—Messrs. Wilcox and Brown, of Mississippi, had a regular rough and tumble fist fight in the House on the 12th. The scene is thus reported by telegraph:
Mr. Brown got the floor and took a retrospective view of the rise and progress of the Southern Rights movement, which went down from the time the first Union convention was held in Mississippi. He went on to say that his colleague (Mr. Wilcox) spoke in bad taste of old time Democrats as trying to sneak back into the Democratic party. They were never out of the party; but Mr. Wilcox and his associates placed themselves outside of the pale of Democracy by joining the Union party.
Mr. Wilcox said he had been prepared for attack, but the missiles were weak and fell harmless at his feet. His colleague had said that no party in favor of secession existed in Mississippi. He thought the gentleman had too high a regard for truth to make a declaration of that kind.
Mr. Brown—Does the gentleman mean to say that I have been guilty of falsehood?
Mr. Wilcox—I have spoken boldly; my language cannot be misconstrued on that point.
Mr. Brown—Do you mean to say that what I have stated is false?
Mr. Wilcox—If you mean to say there is nobody in Mississippi in favor of secession, it is false.
The last word was scarcely uttered when Mr. Brown planted a blow in Mr. Wilcox's face. Mr. W. returned it, whereupon both clinched, and a terrible scene of excitement ensued, and it was with difficulty the parties were separated.
To the Patriotic Voters of the City of Danville!
FELLOW CITIZENS:
More than twelve months ago, harassed by the cares and anxieties of public life, and finding my health somewhat impaired, I withdrew from your midst and settled in an adjoining county, in the neighborhood of the town of Crab Orchard. The delightful mineral waters which abound in that region, and the fresh mountain air which I had the honor to breathe, during my stay, operating according to known laws, upon a frame originally of Herculean strength, very soon restored me to perfect health, and fitted me for once more participating in the busy scenes of city life. But, fellow citizens, notwithstanding the distance which separated us, I was by no means for a single moment forgetful of the interests of my adopted city. In times that are past, my solicitude for her welfare has caused me many a sleepless night, and that same feeling of devotion to her that once led you to entrust the management of her municipal affairs with me, is as earnestly and as sincerely entertained by me this day, as ever it was. During my retirement I had occasion very often to look out from my quiet retreat upon the stormy sea of politics, and frequently in those days, when dark clouds were seen gathering around your horizon, and when the deep-toned thunder was heard muttering in the distance—when even the most stout-hearted among you turned pale with terror—frequently at times like these, I was tempted to forsake even my family and my friends, that I might be one in your midst to witness the downfall of your city, and, if necessary, to mingle my bones with yours in the general ruin.
Fellow citizens, voters of the city of Danville—after having enjoyed for so long a time a life of retirement and of ease, and after having thus recovered my strength, of both body and mind, behold me once again in your midst, a candidate for office! 'Tis true the frosts of more than sixty winters rest upon my brow, yet, "with head erect and visage unappalled," I come before you this day, my countrymen, as determined and as dead to my hostility to tyrants as when two years ago I led you forth to battle against the enemies of civil and religious liberty.
Fellow citizens, I am a candidate once more soliciting your sympathy and your suffrages. I have friends among you, and I know I have many, let them stand forth, that they may be known and recognized as such. I have enemies—bloody-minded and dangerous enemies; men who are moving heaven and earth to bring about my destruction. My enemies are the enemies of our country. Who will unite with me in this last attempt to exterminate them? Where are the heroes of 49—the men who stood by my side in that memorable year? I call upon them once more now to come forth, for a still more fearful struggle is at hand; even worse than the red-eyed Jacobins of that day are arrayed against us.
Fellow citizens, you know my principles—I occupy a proud position—I am a patriot! I am a friend to the poor man, and a foe to the oppressor. I am for the expropriation of all kinds of tyrants and systems of tyranny. For the present let this suffice—you may hear from me again. It is said my enemies contemplate an attack upon me. I shall hold myself in readiness to meet them, come from what quarter they may. Planting my feet upon the City Charter, I bid defiance to their assaults.
Come one, come all, this rock shall fly from its firm base as soon as I'll!

WASHINGTON
WILL stand this season 5 miles west of Danville, 2 1/2 of a mile below Caldwell's Meeting House, at SEVEN DOLLARS to ensure a Mare or TEN to ensure a Jennet in foal.
D. A. KNOX.
DESCRIPTION.
WASHINGTON was by Mason's Morengo Mammoth; his dam, Brown Susan, was the mother of several celebrated Mule Jacks—Washington is near 14 1/2 hands high, and possesses all the qualities of a good horse—sound, strong, and active. He will be three years old this spring. I have taken eleven cups on Brown Susan's colts. Persons wishing premium mares, I think would do well to give him a call, as neither his sire nor dam could be beat producing premium stock.
D. A. KNOX.
TOM HALE.
THIS large Horse will stand at the same place, at FIVE DOLLARS to ensure a call. I deem it unnecessary to give a description of him, as he is so well known. Those wishing large stock either for saddle or harness, would do well to give him a call.
D. A. KNOX.

RIVAL.
WILL stand at the Farm of Dr. Wm. CRAIG, one mile South of Danville, on the Hustonville turnpike road, that fine Young Horse RIVAL, of the English Draft Horse, or Broad Trend Stock, and will be let to mares at Six Dollars the season, or Eight Dollars to insure a calf. Money to be paid at the end of the season, and a price of insurance as soon as the mare is known to be in foal, or is parted with. Great care will be taken, but no liability for accidents or escapes.
WILLIAM B. CRAIG.
PEDIGREE.
RIVAL is a Dark Dapple Brown, 17 hands high, of great size, strength of bone and weight of muscle—will be 4 years old next June. He was sired by that famous imported English Draft Horse Hercules; his dam by Letton's imported English draft horse Prime Colony, his grandam by Grand Turk. This stock of horses are remarkable for their gentleness and good temper, as well as for their great size and power, and a cross with them upon good active mares will make admirable horses for the carriage, the wagon and farm. Persons desiring to raise large mares for the purpose of breeding fine male colts, can accomplish that object by breeding to this very large horse. The season has commenced and will end 1st July. The terms will be $100 per season, for a mare, payable on the 1st of October '52, with the privilege, if the mare does not prove in foal, to have her bred the next season free of charge. Good pasturage will be provided for mares sent from a distance, at one dollar per month, and care taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no liability if any should occur.
DESCRIPTION.
ST. LAWRENCE was imported last fall, at Montreal, Canada, at a very high price, by one of the best judges of a horse in Kentucky. Having travelled all through Canada, with a view of procuring the finest trotter there; regardless of price, he purchased him. He was in training at the time, and was considered one of the best and fastest trotting stallions of his age in that country. He is a dark dapple brown, with yellow nose. He will be 6 years old the ensuing spring, is sixteen hands one inch high, heavy bone and tail, and uncommonly large bone and muscle. Farmers and horsemen who wish a breed durable and high selling horses, would do well to see him, as he must please those who have any idea of the value of a cross with the mares of this country.

Valuable Cumberland River PROPERTY FOR SALE.
OWING to the death of one of the firm, the following Valuable Property is offered for sale, to-wit:
The only property owned by the Hon. B. Y. Owsen, in Cumberland River, in the county of Russell, Ky.
Containing about 1200 Acres
800 of which is rich River Bottom Land as any in the State, and in a good state of cultivation. There are no better lands in the State for Corn and Clover. Between 2000 & 3000 Barrels of Corn was raised upon the Farm last year, and $4,000 and $5,000 worth of Hogs, 200 Hens, and 1000 Chickens were raised. All from the products of the Farm. It is well watered by many never-failing Springs. 400 Acres of the Land is Up Land, well timbered.
A Large Brick Steam Distillery, Capable of making 3 Barrels of Whiskey per day, and 1000 Gallons of Corn. There is an abundance of Cold Spring Water to run the Distillery, the driest place ever known in Kentucky, and a ready market, at a fair price, for all the Whiskey that can possibly be made. And there is perhaps no place in Kentucky where Corn can be so profitably raised, and so conveniently for a Distillery, as at this point, the River affording ample facilities for the transportation of both Corn and Whiskey. Steamboats pass all the property from Six to eight months in the year.
Attached to the Distillery is a Large Steam Saw and Grist Mill, Built in 1850. The Machinery is new with all the late improvements, and is capable of running both Mills at the same time. The Mill is surrounded by inexhaustible quantities of fine Poplar, Elm and Oak timber, and is situated in the State. The River affording facilities for floating Timber to the Mill, and the Lumber to a good market.
The property will all be sold together—or the Mill and Distillery will be sold separately from the Farm. $15,000 will buy the whole property, and a more profitable investment can hardly be made in the State. Terms will be made easy, and an indisputable title made to all the property. Possession given to the Mills and Distillery at any time after the first day of October, 1852, and to the Farm the first day of January, 1853. Persons wishing to examine the property will apply to the subscriber, at the Mills, 1 mile south of Jamestown, the county seat of Russell, Ky.

The People's Jack, MORENGO MAMMOTH
WILL stand this season at Mr. SALEM DOWNING'S, 6 miles from Lexington, on the Paris Turnpike, and where the Iron Works Road crosses it, and will serve Jennets at $30 for a Jack, and $40 for a Jennet colt. Good blue grass, fine feed, and corn fed on reasonable terms. Care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no liability should either happen.
W. HALEY SMITH.
Morengo Mammoth gets a majority of Jack colts. I had 5 Jacks and only 1 Jennet last year. Col. Wm. Roden bred 6 Jennets and got 4 Jacks and 1 Jennet colt. Coleman bred 2 Jennets and got 2 Jack colts. D. C. Overton, Esq., bred 6 Jennets and got 4 colts. Col. J. R. Danaher bred 3 Jennets and got 2 colts, &c.

The Imported Norman French Horse, ST. LAWRENCE,
WILL stand the ensuing season at my farm, three miles from Danville, on the Lexington turnpike road, leading to Lexington. The season has commenced, and will end on the 1st of July. The terms will be $100 per season, for a mare, payable on the 1st of October '52, with the privilege, if the mare does not prove in foal, to have her bred the next season free of charge. Good pasturage will be provided for mares sent from a distance, at one dollar per month, and care taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no liability if any should occur.
DESCRIPTION.
ST. LAWRENCE was imported last fall, at Montreal, Canada, at a very high price, by one of the best judges of a horse in Kentucky. Having travelled all through Canada, with a view of procuring the finest trotter there; regardless of price, he purchased him. He was in training at the time, and was considered one of the best and fastest trotting stallions of his age in that country. He is a dark dapple brown, with yellow nose. He will be 6 years old the ensuing spring, is sixteen hands one inch high, heavy bone and tail, and uncommonly large bone and muscle. Farmers and horsemen who wish a breed durable and high selling horses, would do well to see him, as he must please those who have any idea of the value of a cross with the mares of this country.

The Virginia-Bred Stallion, PLENIPO.
WILL make his second season in Kentucky, at my stables, 2 miles east of Danville, near the Lancaster road, and will be permitted to serve mares at the low rate of FIVE DOLLARS the season.
PLENIPO is a red sorrel, with some roan hairs on his body; is full 16 hands high, of fine bone and great muscular power and action. He was considered second to no horse in the valley of Virginia for the getting of good-looking, fast-going, high-selling Stock, either for Saddle or Harness. He is a superior trotter, walks well, and paces and racks moderately well.
JOHN R. LYLE.
Pedigree.
PLENIPO was sired by Storm; Storm by Plenipo, a Canadian who could both trot and pace a mile in less than 3 minutes; Storm was out of a Hyslop mare; Hyslop came out of a Diomed mare, celebrated for her good qualities as a saddle nag.
CERTIFICATES.
This is to certify, that we have bred to Plenipo, purchased of C. B. Rust, of Warren co., Virginia, by E. S. Brodies of Kentucky, and that we consider him second to no horse with in our knowledge as a breeder of saddle and harness stock, his stock being of fine size and color, and possessed of all the qualities that render a horse valuable either for saddle or harness. (Signed)
JOHN CHURCHILL, ISAAC HARRISON, JNO. B. EARLE.
We certify that we know the stock of this horse and consider him to be the best in the State.
JAS. MITCHELL, J. BROSS.
The large young Jack, St. Anna, NEARLY or quite 15 hands high, will be permitted to serve mares at the same place and on the same terms.

THE TRIBUNE
DANVILLE, MARCH 19, 1852.
ITEMS.
It is stated that about one thousand hands are employed on the line of the Mayville and Lexington Railroad, between Danville and Lexington. An in New Orleans, called Capt. Tompkins, has achieved the wonderful feat of walking sixty hours, incessantly, without sleep or rest. A large party of emigrants, from Kentucky and other States, arrived at St. Louis on Monday, en route for Minnesota. The statement that Governor Brown, of Florida, had authorized the raising of troops to proceed against the Indians, is contradicted. There was in several U. S. depositories, on the 23rd ult., subject to draft, the sum of $13,696,104. Counterfeit one hundred dollar bills of the Louisville State Bank have been put in circulation at New Orleans. Look out. A bill has passed the Senate of Georgia to prohibit the sale of deadly weapons. The cure of luxury is poverty. We'd rather not be cured. At a recent meeting of the Directors of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, it was resolved to extend and connect this road with the city of Paducah. This determination has caused great rejoicing at Paducah. A train of 95 cars, drawn by two locomotives, ran over the Hudson river railroad, on the 16th, going north. It was more than a mile in length. A 5000 lb. machine, with six Frenchmen to operate it, has arrived at Boston from Paris. The French Government refused the American demand to fly it to France. The French minister, the Soviet Order of Emancipation, lately organized at Washington, is spreading rapidly over the State. In four days, $2,000 copies of the Forest divorce case were sold in New York. A New York lecturer has for his theme the novel subject of "Lectures." A mammoth mirror of the Crystal Palace is on exhibition in New York. Amos Kendall, of Washington, is at present in Louisville. Judge Lancaster, of Spencer county, has refused to grant any licenses who were not ancient spirits. The great variety of provisions in some portions of Georgia, gives fearful apprehensions of a famine among the lower class of the citizens. A man, the President of Mexico, was once a mechanic in Cincinnati. The U. S. Supreme Court having refused a writ to Reid and Clements, the condemned pirates at Richmond Va. they were on Friday sentenced to be hung on the 9th of April next. The American Government is said to be demanding a tax of two hundred and twenty-five dollars from every full grown person emigrating to America. We regret to learn that BEN HARRIS is young dangerously ill at his residence at Bardonia, Ky. Isaac Wiseman, who was shot some two weeks since by James Price, in Irvine, died on last Tuesday morning. Passengers can now go through to New York by the little Miami Railroad and Cincinnati and Cleveland Railroad, without detention at Cleveland. The Albany (New York) Register says: "If any Whig candidate for the Presidency can carry New York, Mr. Fillmore can." The tobacco crop of Missouri, for 1851, is estimated at from 14,000 to 15,000 bbls., against 12,000 to 13,000 the preceding year. The quality is said to be good. At Windsor, Vt., sleighing conditions excellent, and the snow lies between three and four feet deep on a hill. According to Dr. Baird, the national debt of France is $1,200,000,000. The reception of Kosciusko in Philadelphia cost the city only $3,200.
CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.
WASHINGTON, March 18, SENATE.
Mr. Seward presented and explained the restoration of slavery in the States. A petition was presented for the removal of public lands.
Mr. Seward presented a resolution from the Louisiana Legislature, asking for an appropriation to the State of Louisiana in the Mississippi drainage basin.
Mr. Blair presented a petition from citizens of Montgomery county, Penn., asking for a modification of the Town of 1846.
A bill regarding the coinage of silver was presented. It provides for the coinage of half dollars of the weight of two grains, and quarter, dime and half dimes of respective proportions and coin of a legal tender. Payments exceeding $5 gold or silver, to be cast in bars or ingots of either pure metal or standard fineness, of the weight of 2.3, 5 or 10 ounces, and also provides for the coinage of $3 gold pieces.
The Iowa railroad bill was taken up and after being discussed at some length, was postponed until Wednesday.
Mr. Clark gave notice of his intention to call up his resolutions on intervention tomorrow, to enable Senator Seward to speak thereon.
House.—Went into committee on the homestead exemption bill, the discussion of the presidential question progressing.
WASHINGTON, March 9, SENATE.
Mr. Charles's non-intervention resolutions were taken up.
Mr. Seward made a set speech upon them.
HOUSE.
The House then went into committee of the whole upon the homestead bill, when a lengthy debate ensued in which the merits of the probable candidates for the Presidency, and their claims for the same were canvassed.
WASHINGTON, March 10, SENATE.
Mr. Birdland spoke in support of the railroad bill, for Ohio, after which a personal explanation occurred between Messrs. Seward and Seward, concerning some remark of the latter yesterday in allusion to the former presiding at the Congressional banquet on Washington's birthday.
Mr. Seward declined to say a word to wound the feelings of Mr. Seward, expressing towards him the warmest feelings of respect and kindness.
After a short executive session, the Senate adjourned.
HOUSE.
Went into committee of the whole on the homestead bill.
Mr. Richardson, of Ill., spoke in defense of Mr. Douglas, in answer to Mr. Breckinridge.

AN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH.

DANVILLE, KY.:
FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 19, 1852.For President in 1852,
MILLARD FILLMORE,
OF NEW YORK.For Vice President,
JOHN J. CRITTENDEN, OF KENTUCKY.

We are again compelled to omit a number of new advertisements. Dr. O. Neill's shall certainly appear next week.

We publish in another column an interesting article from the Maysville Eagle, on the subject of the Danville and Nashville, and Barkville and McMinnville railroad projects.

RAILROAD MEETING.—At a meeting held at the Court House in this place, on Monday last, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Railroad Convention to be held in Burksville on the first Monday in April next, A. G. Talbot, Esq., was called to the chair, and C. T. Worthington Esq., appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated by the Chairman, on motion the following gentlemen were appointed to attend said Convention: John Barkley, Jno. F. Zimmerman, J. T. Boyle, Chas. Caldwell, Jno. R. Ford, Alex. Sneed, Thos. Barbee A. G. Talbot, James Barbour, M. J. Durham, C. B. Wallace, J. P. Mitchell, Dr. P. B. Mason, J. W. Burton, James Brumfield, and C. T. Worthington.

The Convention to be held at Burksville has for its object the promotion of the project to construct a railroad from Burksville to McMinnville, Tennessee, to intersect the proposed Danville and Nashville road at or near this place. This line is one of great importance, as it will furnish a shorter connection with the cities of Mobile, Savannah, Charleston, &c., than any other proposed route. We trust that as many of the delegates from this county as can possibly do so, will attend the Convention and that its deliberations may tend to place the project on a firm basis.

THE PRESIDENCY—OUR POSITION.—We have frequently been advised of late that we are acting imprudently in expressing ourselves so freely against the nomination of Gen. Scott for the Presidency—that we may have to retract—and support him as the nominee of the Whig National Convention. We have nothing to retract, nor do we intend to have. Though we much prefer Mr. Fillmore to Gen. Scott, or any other prominently spoken of as a candidate, we are determined to do our utmost in the support of the nominee of the party—provided, always, that he is a good Whig, a true patriot, with sufficient statesmanship to fill the Presidential chair with honor to himself and the country. It is well known that Gen. Scott is not before the people as a very decided friend of the compromise measures, and a large number believe him to be unsound on that subject. He may be wronged in this, but it would require little exertion to set public opinion right in regard to his position. The way is plain and practical; but the assertions of interested letter-writers, probably bought and paid for, and writing whatever is dictated to them, will never answer the purpose, or satisfy the people. Something intended for the public, either written or delivered verbally, must be had, expressing in positive terms, the General's views in regard to those great measures. Unless this is had, we cannot, consistently with our feelings, support him for the Presidency. We will never give our aid, feeble though it may be, to elevate any man at the head of the affairs of this nation, whose patriotism is the least questionable. This much we have frequently said before, and if this be imprudence, we plead guilty of the charge. We acknowledge no one to be more devoted than ourselves to the great party with which we act, but when that party so far forgets its principles, as to have for its candidate a man whom a great number of its best members are afraid to trust and unwilling to support, we beg leave to assert our independence as freemen, and claim and exercise the right of thinking and acting for ourselves.

To Hon. G. T. Davis, of Mass., and Hon. J. C. Breckinridge, Wm. T. Ward, J. R. Underwood, H. Marshall, and B. E. Grey, of Kentucky, we are indebted for public documents.

AN EDITOR GONE.—We deeply regret to hear of the death of R. R. Lindsey, Esq., editor of the Mt. Sterling (Ky.) Whig. He was an upright man, and an able, independent editor, and has done much good service in bailing for the patriotic principles of Whiggery.

BLOODSHED.—The increase of bloodshed in Kentucky, must be to all peaceable, law-abiding citizens, seriously distressing. Nearly every exchange we pick up contains notices of affrays, too often fatal, in which the pistol or knife has been used by one man to mutilate or destroy his neighbor. Kentucky now, far more than in the days of its early settlement, deserves the title of the "dark and bloody ground," and murder is alarmingly on the increase within its borders. What must be done? Something to check this flow of blood! We can only look to our law-givers and law-dispensers.—They are the proper persons from whom to demand relief. At the next session of the Legislature a law should be passed against the carrying of concealed weapons, imposing a heavy penalty on all who may, unjustifiably, or under slight provocation, keep them about their persons, and a heavy tax upon all who own them. Then, (and now,) let the officers and juries deal out justice more rigidly than heretofore, and after a few fashionable desperadoes have been hung, or imprisoned in the penitentiary, (as the nature of the cases may demand) the beneficial effects of such a law, and the force of example will be plainly seen and felt. Mild means rarely ever remove great evils.

"ON THE FENCE."—The Locos are making themselves quite merry over the election of Mr. Brooke to the U. S. Senate from Mississippi. They say he is not a Whig, as at first reported, but that he is a tolerably good Democrat, while some go far as to assert that he is a regular dyed-in-the-wool, copper-distilled, unwashed, unregenerated Loco. The fact is, he is no such thing—though he is not a first-rate Whig—but he is on the fence, halting between two opinions, and as Prentice has it, deliberating whether to jump off into the Whig clover-field on one side or the Locofofo briar-patch on the other. Brooke is, in short, emphatically a great fellow, and though "settin on a rail," he cannot very properly be called a con. When he decides what to do, and where to go, we will inform our readers where to find him.

THE CUBAN PRISONERS RETURNED.—Ninety-five of the Americans engaged in the invasion of Cuba, and who were sent to Spain, arrived at New York on the 13th. Among their names, we notice that of Mr. Francis Mahan, of this city.

A new daily Whig paper to be styled the Evening News, will shortly be commenced at St. Louis, by A. S. Mitchell, Esq., (formerly editor of this paper,) in connection with Mr. G. C. Ramsey. Mr. Mitchell is favorably known as a good writer and a true Whig, and we hope his efforts will be crowned with success.

The Governor offers a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Robert Jones for the murder of Samuel E. Mitchell in Union county; and a reward of $400 for the apprehension of Ebbon Lambert and Wm. Lowman for the murder of Andrew Gibson in Rockcastle county.

IOWA.—The Whigs of Iowa held a State Convention at Iowa City on the 26th ult. It was numerously attended, and the proceedings were entirely harmonious. The convention endorsed Millard Fillmore and his administration to the fullest extent. They express no preference for Vice President, but go for the Union as it is.

VIRGINIA IMPROVEMENTS.—In every part of Virginia the people are turning their attention to the construction of works of internal improvement. From the report of the Board of Public Works it appears that there are 675 miles of railroad completed, and 636½ in progress of construction—making a total of 1312½ miles within the State.

Mr. Fillmore and the New York Whigs.—We see it stated that at a meeting of the Whig Young Men's Committee of New York city, a resolution in favor of Mr. Fillmore was carried. The names of Webster and Scott were before the committee, but the resolution in favor of Fillmore prevailed by a majority of two. The resolutions are to come before the General Committee of the Whigs of the city.

RIOTS.—Several riots have occurred between the Fardown and Corkonian Irish laborers engaged on the line of the Maysville and Lexington railroad in Fleming county. Several have been killed and many others wounded, and the Governor has ordered the militia to be called out to restore order.

The telegraph advises us that a man was arrested in Philadelphia on the night of the 12th inst., charged with hotel robberies. It turned out that he was J. Rand Thompson, who with two others escaped from the penitentiary in this State in July last.

LOUISVILLE TIMES.—We have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of several copies of the Louisville Daily Times. The paper is printed in first-rate style, while the editorial and news departments are managed with energy and ability.

HORRID MURDER.—LYNCH LAW.—The Grenada (Miss.) Republican gives the particulars of the murder of Mr. Thos. M. Bingham by four of his own slaves. Mr. B. was missing and could not be found. A confession was finally extorted from one of the negroes concerned in the murder. After killing their master by strangling him with a rope, they put the body in a sack with stones and threw it in a creek. Two men, a boy and a woman had a hand in the murder. They were arrested and ironed. A mob took the two men from the jail and hung them.

DECIDEDLY APPROPRIATE.—Mr. Leonard Jones, (universally known as "Live-forever Jones") was the chosen orator to receive Kossuth at Paducah.

The Spirit of the Times says, on the subject of racing time, that no horse ever went a mile within a minute, although it has been alleged of Flying Childers.—Such a feat is impossible, for it would require a horse to have a stride of ninety feet, and perform it once in every second. The best time ever made in a four mile race was made by Fashion. The time was 7 minutes and 38 seconds and ½ of a second.

The statue of Mr. Clay, ordered from Mr. Hart, in Florence, by the ladies of Virginia, has been delayed in consequence of the difficulty of procuring a suitable block of marble—the Russian government having monopolized the product of the quarries—but Mr. Hart, in a recent letter, states that he has at last procured a block of the most beautiful marble, and expects to complete the statue in twelve months.

MR. CLAY.—The Washington Telegraph of last Saturday, says: "We have reason to hope that before many days shall pass, Mr. Clay's voice will be heard in the chamber of the U. S. Senate."

A bill similar to the Maine Liquor Law has passed both branches of the Massachusetts Legislature, but will be submitted to the people for their adoption, before being enforced.

On the 1st inst., at Mobile, Miss Cushman completed the feat of walking 500 half miles in 250 consecutive hours. She walked the last mile in fifteen minutes, and the following morning she was reported in the enjoyment of fine health and spirits.

The impression left by Kossuth is not always of the most favorable kind. The venerable John Barney, of Baltimore, who had a long interview with Kossuth, says of him:

"I left him with a conviction that he was the most erudite scholar, accomplished, fascinating and eloquent orator of the age; at the same time a sturdy beggar, a dangerous incendiary, and a cold-hearted ingrate."

Com. Morgan says of him: "The devil seems to possess this gentleman. His determined willfulness is unquenchable."

Mrs. Swissheim, who is a close observer, says he is "a great bore."

Buchanan	97
Cass	31
Walker	2
Housson	2

HEAVY MEN.—A correspondent of the Baltimore American says a Revolutionary paper recently brought to light, shows that the following was the weight of several officers of the Revolutionary Army, August 19th, 1793, weighed at the scales at West Point:

Gen. Washington	209 lbs.
" Lincoln	224 "
" Knox	200 "
" Huntington	162 "
" Greaton	166 "
Col. Swift	219 "
" Michael Jackson	252 "
" Henry Jackson	238 "
La. Col. Huntington	212 "
" Cobb	162 "
" Humphrey	221 "

MORTALITY AMONG GENERALS.—Within the five years which have elapsed since the commencement of the war with Mexico, no less than thirteen American Generals have departed this life, viz: Taylor, Worth, Mason, Brady, Kearney, Hamer, Hopping, Belknap, Duncan, Croughan, Brooks, Arbutckle, and Whiting.

THE LAST PIN.—The Carrollton Picayune has the following ticket posted up: For President DAVID CARTER, of Ohio. For Vice President LEWIS CASS, of Michigan.

The Holmes county Farmer perfectly astounded at the aspirations of ambitious mankind, calls out—"Gabriel, blow your trumpet, I'm ready to go now!"

PORK.—The Louisville Journal, of Saturday, has the annexed notice:

It will be seen from our commercial report that there were some heavy operations in this article yesterday. Nearly 2,500 barrels changed hands at $15.—Last evening this price was refused. We were shown a private dispatch from New Orleans, dated yesterday, which quoted mess at $17.

HORRIBLE AND BLOODY AFFRAY IN GARRARD.—A correspondent of the Louisville Courier gives the following details of a bloody affray in Garrard county, on Saturday evening last, the 13th inst:

Last evening, about five o'clock, Russell Hill, Isa' Hill, Fred. Hill, and two or three boys, sons of Isaiah and Frederick, were returning homeward from Teetersville, accompanied by Dr. O. P. Hill, of this place; just as the party got opposite to a tobacco house (which had been fortified) on Scott's Fork of Sugar Creek, they were fired upon, and Russell Hill fell mortally wounded. His brothers and nephews hastened to his assistance. The fire from the house still increasing, he remarked, "You can do me no good, boys; they have killed me; do the best you can," and expired. The Hills then charged upon the house, and Isaiah Hill was killed just as he was getting over the fence. The door of the house was forced by the remaining Hills, and fight continued with short arms and bowie knives John Sellers was shot by a son of Isaiah Hill, (12 or 14 years of age) and fell and expired after having received five other shots through the head.

William Chrisman was shot by the same boy, when in the act of stabbing Frederick Hill with a bowie knife. Chrisman died, having on his body one pistol shot and fifty-three wounds inflicted with a knife. A man by the name of Alverson, and another by the name of Samuel Sellers, (of the house party) were slightly wounded. Two of the boys (Hills) were wounded with rifle shots, and one of them, a mere boy, lies in a critical condition.

Dr. Hill was not armed, and I understand did not participate in the conflict. He was considerably in advance of the party when the action commenced. He is now with the wounded, and a party have just left town to ascertain further particulars.

Very heartily yours, &c.

P. S.—Since writing the above, Dr. Burdett has arrived from the ground, and confirms the news of the death of Russell and Isaiah Hill, John Sellers and William Chrisman.

It is considered here that Gen. Scott's chance for a nomination by the Whig Convention is growing less every fast.—The South will insist on Fillmore or Webster in preference to General Scott, and not a single Whig delegation from the South will offer in the convention any assurance that Gen. Scott will obtain any Southern support. If Mr. Fillmore should not withdraw his name from the candidature, he will have the nomination of all the Southern States, and ultimately, he or Mr. Webster must be nominated. Many suppose that the choice of the latter would be as good as that of the former, but as to this there are different opinions. As to the Whig Vice President it is now a question whether Mr. Crittenden or Gov. Jones shall be the nominee; but it must, I think, be the former.

Local Matters.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. LEWIS DEER, an aged citizen of this place, died very suddenly, of apoplexy, on Monday morning last, while sitting at his breakfast table. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict as above.

LOOK OUT FOR THE SCOUNDRELS.—Prof. Laughlin & Co., (professors in the art of humbugging the public and swindling the printers,) are going through the country exhibiting with a very imperfect magic lantern, (which they call a "Dioptric Polyrama," a number of daubed pictures (which they dignify with the title of "Paintings.") They exhibited in this city on Wednesday evening last, and eloped during the night, leaving with us an unpaid bill for printing. We caution our brethren of the craft, and the public generally, to beware of them.

PRIEST ON SLAVERY.—The proprietor of the "Literary Depot" has placed on our table a handsome copy of the enlarged and revised edition of PRIEST'S "Bible Defence of Slavery," a very important and popular work. Those who desire to secure a copy of it will do well to call soon, as but few of them are left.

HATS AND CAPS.—We invite attention to advertisement of Messrs. KIRKLEY & HICKEY, successors to Geo. C. Bain, Lexington, Ky. Their immense stock of Hats, Caps, &c., is well worth the attention of purchasers, and we feel assured that they will sell, either at wholesale or retail on as favorable terms as any establishment in the West.

"LONE STAR."—Messrs. MORROW & CO., are now receiving their handsome stock of New Goods, suitable for this and the approaching season. See advertisement.

MUSIC SCHOOL.—Mr. COINSKY in desirous of commencing another Music Class in this place on Monday next, and will yet receive a few scholars to complete it. Mr. C. is too well known in this community to need any recommendation from us or any one else.

DAGUERREAN SALOON.—We are pleased to inform our citizens that Mr. R. M. BALDRIDGE, from an eastern city, has just arrived in this place and has taken the room, formerly occupied for the same business, in the Batterson House building, which he is having refitted with sky and side light combined. Mr. R. comes highly recommended, and from his specimens which we have seen, he is evidently the best artist who has ever visited our city. His rooms will be open in about ten days.

THE CONCERT TO-MORROW NIGHT.—Those of our citizens who are fond of listening to good music, should bear in mind that the concert of the celebrated Spencer Family will be given on to-morrow evening, at Franklin Hall. They of course will have a large audience, and certainly deserve such a reception. They have, as yet, given but few concerts in our own State, but wherever they have been, they are spoken of in the highest terms of praise.

The following notice we clip from the Frankfort Commonwealth of Wednesday last:

THE SPENCERS.—Those who staid away from the Spencers' concert on Friday night, missed a most charming entertainment. They have excellent voices, admirably cultivated and harmonized, and sing with fine taste. Every body present was delighted with them, and strong efforts were made to induce them to remain and give another, assuring them of a full house; but their engagements were made ahead, and they were obliged to go on. We hope they will soon visit us again.

ELECTRICAL PSYCHOLOGY.—Dr. RAWLINGS, a distinguished Lecturer on the subject of Electrical Psychology, is now in our city, and will deliver his first lecture on Tuesday evening next, at Franklin Hall. The subject is a new one, thoroughly understood by few persons, and all who desire to enquire into it, should attend. After his lecture, the Dr. will illustrate and prove the truth of his position by numerous astonishing, instructive and amusing experiments. He has with him a large number of testimonials showing his thorough knowledge of the subject of Psychology, and his complete success in experimenting.

"Soon after the defeat of one of our worthy whig candidates for the Legislature last December, a staunch old Democrat, who had never flinched in allegiance to his party, entered his office. So you would not vote for me, he jocularly observed; you are regularly wool-dyed; I don't believe you would vote for the best Whig alive? What will you bet on that? 'A hat,' 'Done,' said the old Democrat, drawing himself up to his full height, and adding: 'I will vote for Millard Fillmore in preference to any Democrat they can bring out.' This is the sentiment of more than one."

MOVEMENTS OF THE ENEMY.—A letter from Washington says:

It is stated on good authority that Senator Douglass has consented to throw his strength into the Buchanan interests, the morale of the move being, that if Gen. Cass were to get the nomination, it would in any event, prevent the Northeast from receiving it in 1856; whereas, by going for Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Douglass stands well for the next election. At all events you may rely that the move has been agreed upon.

We are authorized to announce Mr. JAMES CROW a candidate for Sheriff of Lincoln county, at the ensuing August election.

DIED.—In this place, on Tuesday last, after a protracted illness, Mrs. ISABELLA E. J. WEISIGER, wife of Dr. JOSEPH WEISIGER, in Harrodsburg, at the residence of Mrs. MARY LAFON, on Tuesday, the 2d instant, Miss KATE STOUT, of consumption.

The Splendid Jack,

THE GREAT CASTILIAN,
THE Largest Animal of his species in the World has arrived in Kentucky, and will make the present season at the stables of Mr. W. T. CALMES, 4 miles east of Lexington, near the Turnpike road to Winchester, Ky. He will serve Jennets at $100 the insurance. The insurance is to be paid when the Jennet is ascertained to be safe and returned. The best blue grange pastures have been provided for Jennets, and they will be grain fed on the usual terms. Proper attention will be paid to Jennets sent to the Great Castilian, and care taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no responsibility should either occur.

The GREAT CASTILIAN, as before observed, is the largest and most universally admitted to be the finest Jack in the Kingdom, and landed in this country in May last. He is 4 years old, of a beautiful black color, sixteen and a half hands high, of remarkably fine form and substance, and combines in him more of the fine qualities of a successful brooder than any other animal of his class. Since his arrival at Lexington he has been visited and examined by a large number of persons interested in this description of stock, and their judgment confirms what is here said. However, "The Great Castilian" needs no enlarged eulogium. He speaks for himself, and breeders will be of course take occasion to examine him, which they are invited to do.

TO SHIPPERS

OF Tobacco, Hemp, Cattle, Horses,
Sheep, Land, Bacon, Cotton, and all kinds of Heavy and Light Freight to New York, Boston, &c.
The lines of Railroad between Cincinnati and Cleveland, via Columbus, will be fully prepared with engines and cars on the opening of navigation, to transport large quantities of Freight, with expedition and at low rates.

These Roads will be connected by daily lines of first class steamers with Danville and Buffalo, and with Ogdensburg by a line of steam propellers.

The New York and Erie—the Central Line between Buffalo and Albany, and the Boston and Ogdensburg Railroads, have largely increased their stock of machinery, and have otherwise made preparations to do a large business at low rates.

Before the close of navigation, the Lake Shore Road will be completed, forming a continuous line to New York, Boston, &c., and enabling this line of Roads to offer great inducements to shippers, at all seasons of the year.
